PRESIDENT CLINTON NOTES BIRTH OF ALEKSANDAR IVANOVIC

NEWS OF ARRIVAL REACHES WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON (AP) - The President of the United States, Bill Clinton, proclaimed that today be a day of national celebration, heralding the birth of Aleksandar Ivanovic on Sunday, May 3, 1998. The White House sent a bouquet of lilies of the valley, the flower for the month of May, to the family.

Celebrities Share May 3rd Birthday

May 3rd seems to be a popular day to be born, at least according to the impressive list of rich and famous people born on that day! Also born this date are Bing Crosby, Engelbert Humperdinck, Walter Slezak, Sugar Ray Robinson, Doug Henning, and Frankie Valli.

It's interesting to note that as of Sunday, May 3, 2009, Aleksandar will have been alive for 4,018 days!

Yankees Win 1998 World Series

NEW YORK - It was celebration time in New York as the Yankees captured the 1998 world title. It was a hard loss for the San Diego Padres of the National League, as the American League team took the series four games to zero.

Congress Debates Consumer Prices

CAPITOL HILL (UPI) - Heated discussion marked the House floor today as Congress debated the state of consumer prices. Many congressmen complained that the average American just can't afford a new house at today's price of $124,100.00.

Split along party lines, many Republicans felt that $1.49 for a half gallon of milk was a solid consumer bargain, while Democrats pointed out that $2.99 for a pound of bacon was too expensive for many. Since the average U.S. worker now earns a record annual wage of $27,455.00, many members of the House felt that $1.99 for a loaf of bread was quite affordable.

Vice-President Al Gore noted that while ten pounds of potatoes had risen to $1.49, he said that the American public had, in 1998, more buying power than ever before.

The 71st Annual Academy Awards

"May I Have The Envelope, Please?"

HOLLYWOOD (TBC) - It was the stars' night out as The Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences honored the industry's finest. The most eagerly awaited award of the evening was Best Picture of 1998, won by "Shakespeare in Love."

Best Actor honors went to Roberto Benigni for "Life is Beautiful", and Gwyneth Paltrow for her role in "Shakespeare in Love" took center stage for Best Actress. Rounding out the evening's ceremony was the Oscar for Best Song, captured by "When You Believe" from "The Prince of Egypt".

Music, Music, Music The Top Hits of '98

What a year it has been for the music industry! With hit songs like "I Don't Want To Miss A Thing," and "My Heart Will Go On," success was assured. Who could forget the enchanting melody of "You're Still The One," or stop humming, "Lean On Me," one of the year's most popular songs? Yes, the tunes of 1998 will remain in our hearts for a long time to come.

Chinese Celebrate Year of The Tiger

CHINATOWN - It only seems natural that the birth of Aleksandar Ivanovic might be cause for great joy in the Chinese community. After all, this lucky person was born during the Chinese Lunar Year 4,665, the year of the Tiger, a very auspicious year!

Persons born in this year are said to be aggressive, courageous and candid. Today's fortune cookie says, "Candor Was Never Your Best Suit!"
